

NEW PHOTO OF LANDON AND KNOX * * LARGE MUSCALLONGE CAUGHT * * MOLLISON TO FLY OCEAN AGAIN

SHERIDAN PARK GOLF COURSE IMPROVED

Photo shows a section of the $35,000 improvement project at Sheridan Park golf course in Tonawanda, which is nearing completion. Workers, during the last eight months, have installed an extensive sprinkler system, graded the banks of the creek and landscaped the course.

STANDARD BEARERS OF THE PARTY—A new photo of Governor Alf M. Landon and Col. Frank Knox, Republican candidates for President and Vice-President, taken during a recent visit of Col. Knox to the governor's home in Topeka. (P) Wirephoto

BABY BORN IN WELL HAS BIRTHDAY—Franklin Jourdan, right, born at the bottom of a 40-foot well, his three-year-old brother, Jack, and his mother, Mrs. Alton Jourdan, are shown with little Franklin's one-candle birthday cake. Franklin is a sturdy youngster, showing no ill effects from his trying experience of a year ago. (P) Wirephoto

MOLLISON READY FOR SEA HOP—Capt. James Mollison, British trans-ocean flyer, waves from the cockpit of his big monoplane after a test hop from Floyd Bennett field. Mollison hopes to take off on his projected New York-to-London flight today, weather permitting. (P) Wirephoto

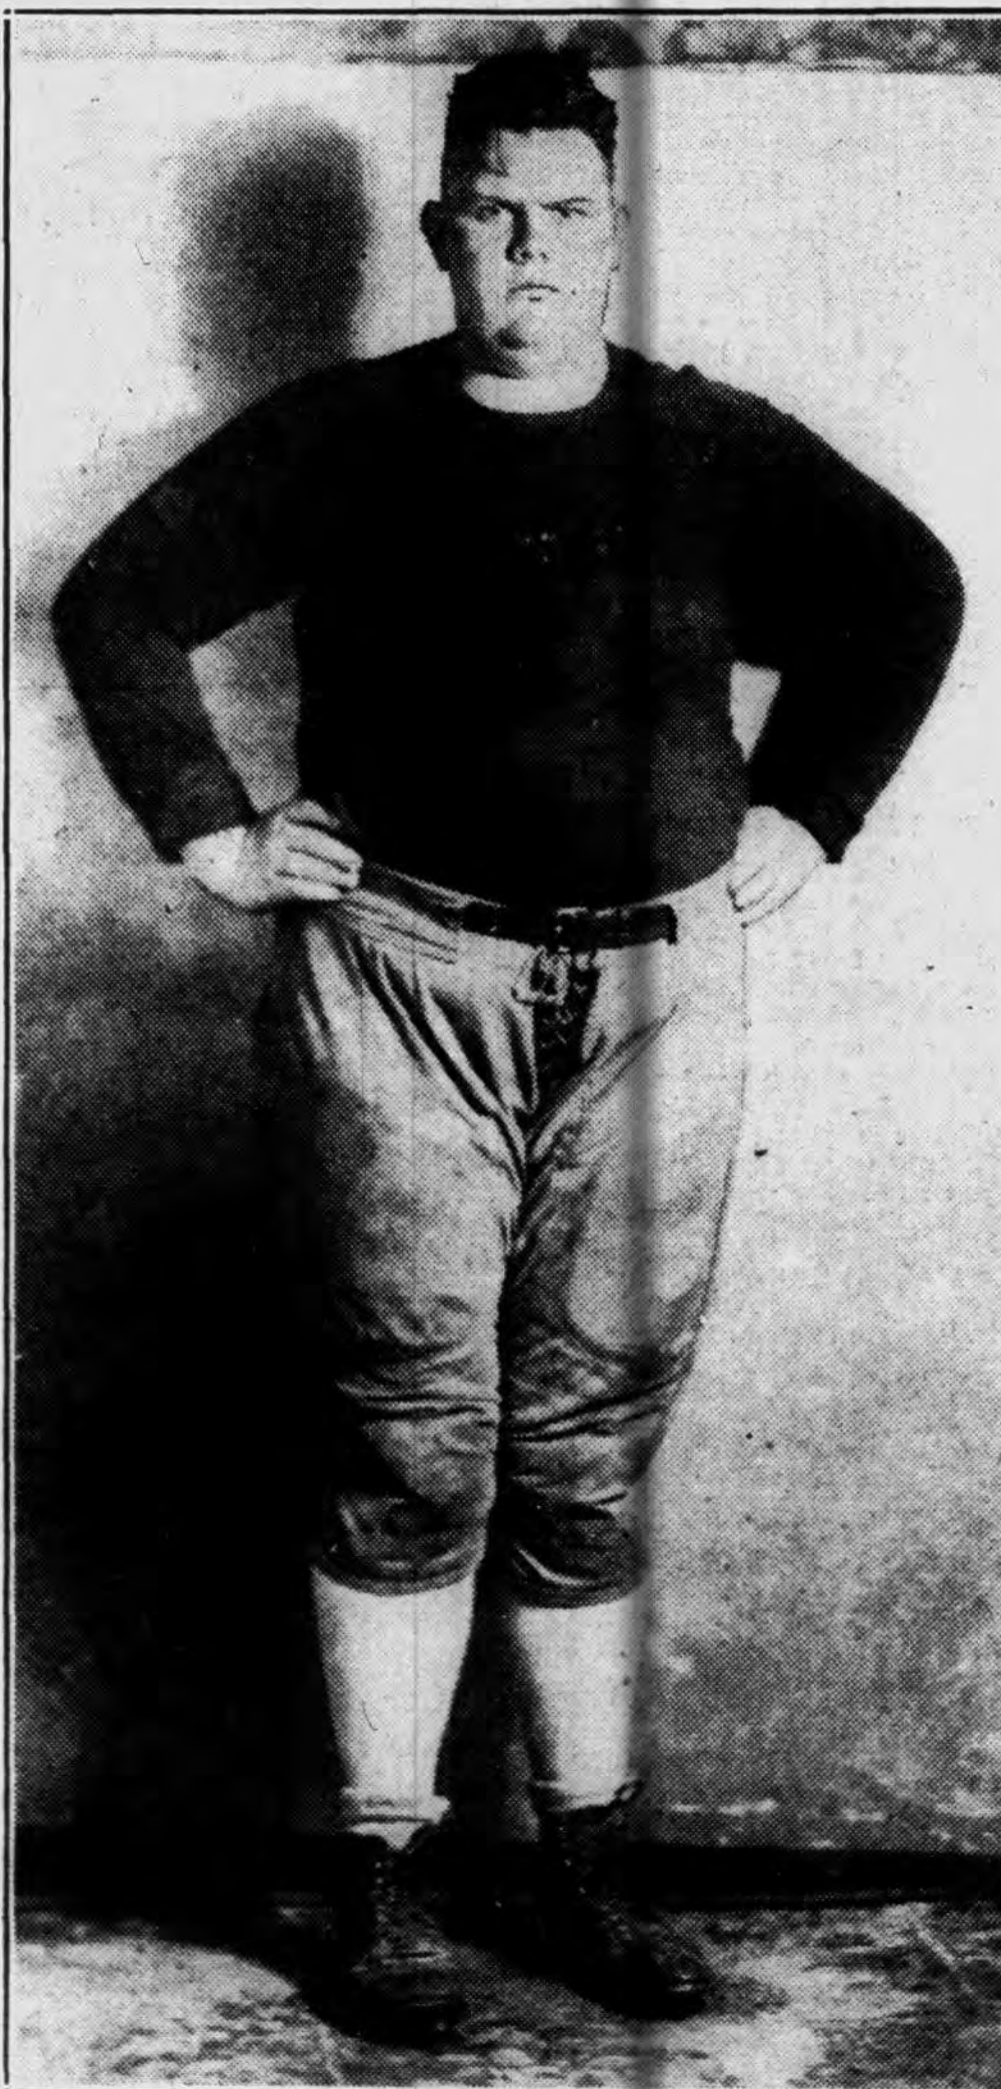

ESSAY WINNER ARRIVES

Edna Falk, above, seventeen-year-old liberty essay contest winner from Pueblo, Colo., is shown as she arrived by plane yesterday for the ceremony rededicating the Statue of Liberty this Wednesday. Edna's essay was judged best out of 100,000 submitted. (P) Wirephoto

GAY NINETIES AND PERFECT THIRTY-SIX

Two models at the fourth annual Buffalo Beauty Show at Hotel Statler display the old and the new in bedtime styles. Mildred Bauers, pajama-clad modern miss, contrasts with the girl in the curlers and flannel nightgown, Evelyn Martin.

HATTIESBURG CAN'T LOSE—A "big" reason why Hattiesburg (Miss.) Junior High School is achieving success on the gridiron is Theron Lynd, above, 320-pound tackle. Although the giant is only fifteen years old, he stands more than six feet tall. Associated Press Photo.

SMITH CHARGES ATTACK AFTER RADIO SPEECH

Gerald L. K. Smith, none the worse for his "attack" by three men at a New Orleans radio station, is shown with his wife reading newspaper accounts of the affair. Smith contended he was "attacked" following his speech denouncing Governor Richard Leche. (P) Wirephoto

WILL HEAR MRS. SIMPSON'S DIVORCE—Sir John Anthony Hawke of Ipswich, England, who has come into prominence because he is to preside over the divorce action of Mrs. Ernest Simpson, friend of King Edward, is shown leaving his home on the way to assize court. (P) Wirephoto

QUEEN OF THE CAMPUS—Miss Elsa Smith, 20, of Albany, will reign this year as Campus Queen of the New York State College for Teachers at Albany. She was selected from a group of five candidates and crowned in a traditional ceremony in Page Hall at the college. Associated Press Photo.

—AND THEY DIDN'T GET AWAY!—A record catch of muscallonge was made yesterday in Niagara River off Grand Island State Park by Carl Langfelder of 126 Crowley Street, and his son, Warren. They are shown holding the larger fish which weighed 39 pounds, the largest taken in Niagara River in ten years. Charles Lochte, Mr. Langfelder's nephew, who accompanied them in the boat, is holding their other catch, weighing 17½ pounds.